New: Ladies Match Play Fridays

(Members can bring guests complimentary)

This Friday morning organized match play opportunity is for ladies looking for a fun match. Members from the winter points leagues, private group participants, USTA league players, cardio enthusiasts, drills and thrills players and permanent court time are all welcome to sign up for this weekly match play.

(Guests limited to two participation days)

Fridays 9:00 - 10:30 am $16.00 per week

Contact Alexa VanOsdol: avanosdol@wildwoodracquetclub.com or 432-0502. Call by Thursday noon to reserve your participation.

NEW: Private Group Instruction Options for: Juniors, USTA Teams, and Adults

New: Junior Drill and Play

This drill and play is designed for a small group of juniors who would like to work with friends or high school teams to prepare for season. Contact a Wildwood professional of your choice and schedule your weekly workouts.

New: USTA League Team Drills

Ask your USTA Captain and Wildwood Pro to organize a team practice for your summer competition. This is an opportunity to drill with the players that you will be partnered with during competitive play. Get a USPTA certified professional to guide you through match preparation, strategy and mental focus during competitive evenings.

New: Skill, Drill and Play

This summer class is designed for small groups who would like to learn a specific skill. The pro will work on the new skill for 30 minutes, drill the skill in point play, and coach the group in match play using the new skill. This is a 1.5 hour class that you create with your friends and a Wildwood teaching professional.

Membership Guidelines, General Information and Guest Fees

- Membership is based from September 1 to August 31 and is pro-rated on that schedule. Membership fees will only be returned in the event of medical leave or relocation outside the 75 mile radius of Wildwood Racquet Club.

- All members and their guest must register at the front desk when entering the club. Guests cannot play without a current Wildwood member. Please settle charges before play. Guest fees will be assessed all year round, including the summer, on both indoor and outdoor courts. Guest fees of $ 15.00 per day will be assessed for all non-members residing within a 75 mile radius of the club. This includes those players that have permanent, as well as out-of-town, residences. Guest fees not settled will be assessed to the member (s).

- Food and beverages, other than water, are not permitted on court. No chewing gum, please.

- All persons using the club and its facilities do so at their own risk. Wildwood is not responsible for any accident, personal injury, loss or damage to personal property.

- All clothing should be of a tennis nature. Shirts are to be worn at all times, indoors and outdoors. Flat soled, non-marking shoes are required.

- No solicitation is permitted on club grounds, including services that directly compete with those provided by Wildwood, including racquet stringing. Only a Wildwood professional will be permitted to conduct lessons on club grounds.

- Guest fees will be assessed for all USTA practices that do not include a Wildwood professional.

- Guest fees will be assessed to non-members of league winning USTA teams as they proceed through the championship playoffs.

- Complimentary courts for USTA leagues winners will only be granted no earlier than two weeks out from each playoff round. Please call Alexa VanOsdol for USTA information.

Open Play and Lessons

- Open time may be reserved by members in 30 minute increments. Reservations or lessons cannot be cancelled within 24 hours without a court or lesson charge.

- Non-member lessons fees will be assessed. An exception will be made for children 10 and under of a current Wildwood member, where membership not required. Wildwood members have priority in scheduling.
